Executive Proclamation State of South Dakota Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Veterans Day affords each of us an opportunity to join with all citizens in communities across this nation in honoring those whose love of our country knew no bounds, and those to whom patriotism was more than mere sentiment; and,

WHEREAS, Without the sacrifices which our veterans so freely made in protecting our cherished freedom, we would not be the great nation we are today; and,

WHEREAS, Thousands of men and women from the State of South Dakota joined with comrades of other states in advancing the cause of world peace; and,

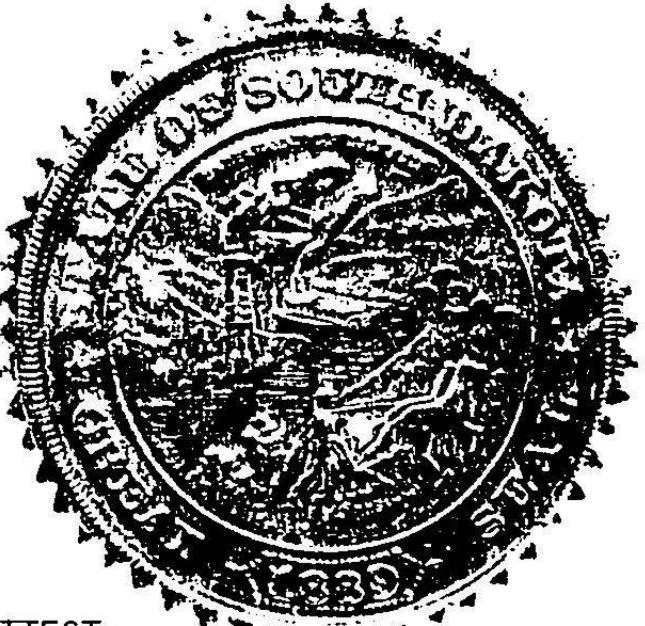

WHEREAS, This nation and the free world are eternally grateful for the contributions made by America's veterans; and,

WHEREAS, The State Legislature of South Dakota has designated Sunday, November 11, 1984, as Veterans Day:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim Sunday, November 11, 1984, as

VETERANS DAY

In South Dakota, and in suitable recognition of that day request that the flag of the United States be displayed on all public buildings, on our streets and on our homes. I also urge that civic and patriotic organizations participate in and give enthusiastic support to appropriate ceremonies marking this special day. I further ask all South Dakotans to participate as fully as possible in the spirit of this day, remembering those who made the sacrifices, those who gave their lives, those who are disabled, those who are missing and all those whose lives were interrupted by their service to our country in the Armed Forces.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twelfth Day of October, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Four
